Robert Kool Bell

Bandleader/co-founder Robert "Kool" Bell, whose bass guitar work serves as an anchor within the rhythm section, recalls that the song was derived from a prior hit – with some divine inspiration. "We got the idea to write 'Celebration' from our tune, 'Ladies Night' – a smash for us in 1979 – based on the line from that song, 'come on, let's all celebrate'," said Kool. "My brother Ronald Khalis Bell, members of the band and I wanted to create a song that would be an international anthem, to bring people together around the world – regardless of race, ethnicity, gender or beliefs." "Celebration" couldn't have been released at a better time. As the single rose up the charts, the song was heard
