Arrington Foster
 Arrington Foster was born and raised in Clinton, Maryland. Growing up, Arrington was heavily involved in theater as a child and in college. Arrington appeared in many plays and musicals such as The Wiz, Annie, Footloose, A Chorus Line, etc. He has a Bachelor's degree in Arts and Theatre with a minor in Communication Studies from Texas Christian University in Fort Worth, TX. In 2015, Arrington moved to Los Angeles, CA to further pursue his acting career in film/television. In 2018, after appearing in a few commercials, short films, student projects, and web series Arrington landed the role of playing Rio Duncan on the hit BET show Carl Weber's "The Family Business" which is on it's forth season. Arrington has newly relocated to ATL and is excited to continue his journey here in Atlanta.
