Hisham Tawfiq

Long before becoming widely known as "Dembe," a Sudanese Freedom Fighter and right-hand man to Raymond Reddington on NBC's hit show The Blacklist, Hisham Tawfiq discovered his passion for the arts in his High School while performing the poem "I Know Why The Caged Bird Sings" by Maya Angelou. Tawfiq then studied at the world-renowned Negro Ensemble Theater Company which has brought forth such notable actors as Denzel Washington, Ossie Davis, and Phylicia Rashad. He also studied with Susan Batson, who's known for coaching actors such as Nicole Kidman, Tom Cruise, and Jennifer Connelly. Tawfiq says, "As an Actor, just like a human being, evolution, and education are infinite." Throughout his
