Debert Cook

Debert Cook, a seasoned media expert, embarked on an incredible journey in 2003, launching the trailblazing African American Golfer's Digest. This visionary publication, headquartered on Wall Street in NYC's Financial District, quickly became a PGA Diverse Supplier in 2009, setting a remarkable precedent. Notably, Cook stands as the pioneering Black woman who wholly owns a prominent US golf magazine. Since its 2003 launch, she's dedicated herself to balanced editorial content, spotlighting the vibrant achievements and lifestyles of Black Americans immersed in both leisure and competitive golf – a sport that embodies a lifetime of passion. In 2011, Cook introduced National Black Golf Month th
